Discover Dallas Days at Old Red --
Planes, Trains, and Automobiles
Saturday, October 10 from 11am - 3pm

Reduced Admission All Day - $5 Per Person

- WHO: Old Red Museum of Dallas County History & Culture
- ADMISSION: Free for Museum members; non-member admission reduced to $5 per person all day on October 10 from 9am to 5pm.
- WHEN: Saturday, October 10, 2009 Museum is open from 9am to 5pm; activities from 11am to 3pm.
- WHAT: Ever changing and always important, transportation helped Dallas to become the county it is today. From pioneers in covered wagons and locomotives roaring through Dallas, to D/FW becoming an international airport, Dallas' leaders understood that efficient transportation was a major component of a major city. Travel through Dallas County history as we journey back in time to learn about the planes, trains, automobiles, and other modes of transportation that have shaped the Dallas we know today. Families can enjoy the galleries together with a transportation scavenger hunt, make paper airplanes, and create a transportation treat to take home! Join us for lots of fun focusing on Dallas modes of transportation of the past, present, and future.
- WHERE: 100 South Houston Street in the historic West End of downtown Dallas.

MUSEUM: The Old Red Museum of Dallas County History & Culture is located in the West End of downtown Dallas at 100 South Houston Street in the beautifully restored Old Red Courthouse built in 1892. Dedicated to inspire and educate visitors about the rich and varied cultural, economic, political and social history of the Dallas County area, the 2nd floor of Old Red is filled with interactive exhibits, an educational learning center, and four mini theaters.

INFO: Old Red is open seven days a week from 9 am to 5 pm. Parking vouchers for Dallas County underground parking may be purchased for $2.00 with Museum admission. The Museum is easily accessible from the DART West End Station or Union Station. For more information, visit www.oldred.org or call 214-745-1100.
